

Name: _____ Group _____

Grade: _____

Class: _____ ()

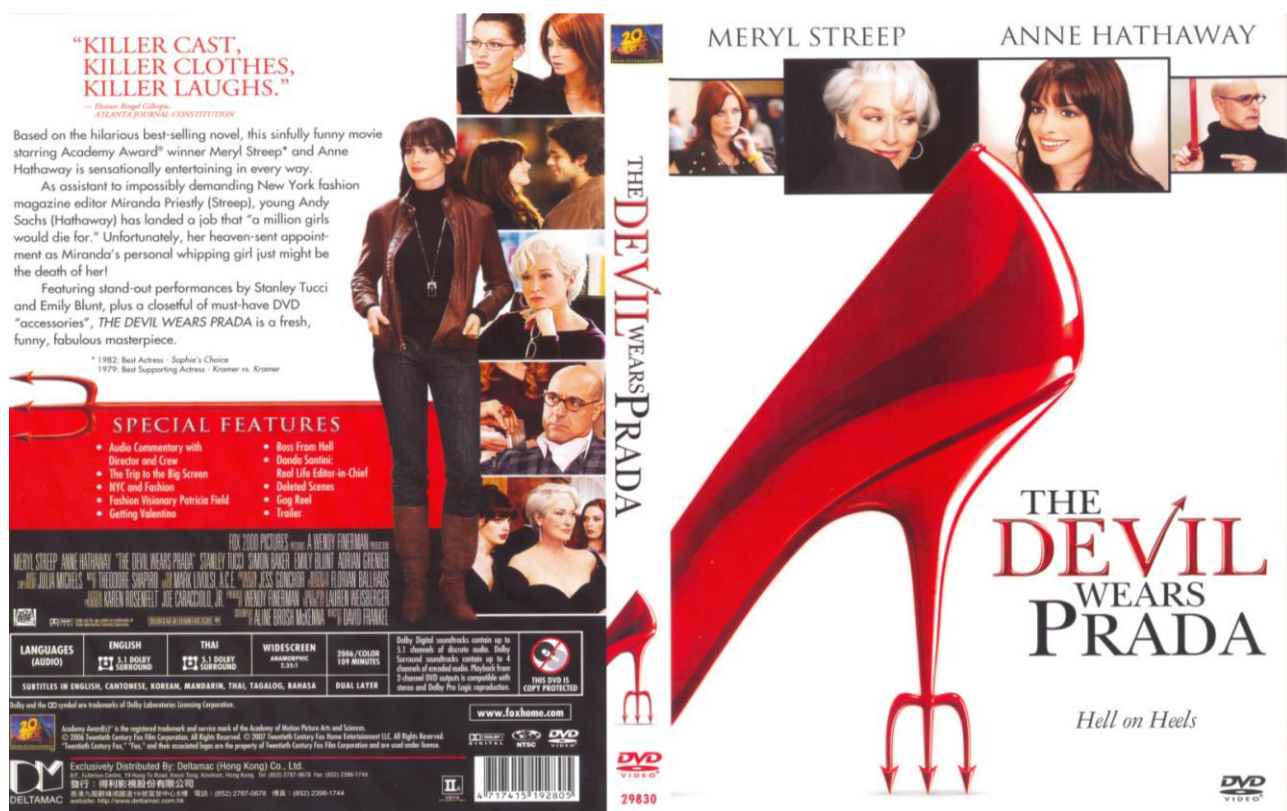

Date: _____

THE DEVIL WEARS PRADA

Theme: “The World of Fashion”

Part A: Introduction

In English Week 2010, we are going to watch the movie The Devil Wears Prada. Now, let’s see how much you know about this movie by giving short answers to the questions below:

1. Who is the director of the movie?

2. Is this movie based on a book?

3. What is the movie about? (circle the correct answer)

- A. The strange experience of encountering devils at Halloween.
- B. A girl who loves to get dressed as devil.
- C. A girl meeting a picky boss in a fashion magazine publishing company.
- D. The competitions between models in the fashion world.

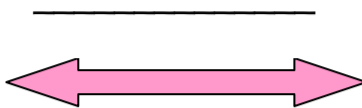

4. Is it a comedy or tragedy?

Part B: About the Characters

The chart below shows the relationship between characters. Pay special attention to their names and jobs while you are watching the movie and fill out the boxes with the correct words.

They are

Name: _____
Job: _____

Her name is _____. She finds a job at _____ Magazine and works as the _____ to the editor-in-chief.

She has met three special people in the company:

Name: _____
Job title: _____

Name: _____
Job title: _____

Name: _____
Job title: _____

Part C: Movie Story

Retell the story by arranging the following sentences in the correct order.

A Feb up with the vanity fair and outraged about an injustice done by Miranda to Nigel, Andrea finally determines to resign.

B Andrea begins to make up with her boyfriend and has found a job as a newspaper reporter on the strong recommendation of her former boss Miranda.

C Andrea faces the temptation not only of designer clothes and accessories which may turn her into a material girl but also of a charming young writer who promises to help her with her writing career.

D Andrea gets a job in a fashion magazine and works for an arrogant and demanding boss, Miranda.

E The overbearing manners and humiliating remarks of her boss drives her to despair.

F Ignorant of and resistant to the world of fashion, Andrea is teased by her gossipy colleagues and ordered about by Miranda and Emily.

G Having fulfilled a couple of missions impossible, she wins the picky boss's favor and is chosen to escort her to the fashion show in Paris.

H With the help of Nigel, Andrea becomes stylish and competent.

→ → → → → → →

Part D: Writing a Letter to the Character

In the movie, Andrea has been quite desperate as a new member of Runway Magazine. She has come across difficulties in adapting to the new working environment and the new colleagues. As a close friend of Andrea, you received a letter from her asking for your advice.

Read the letter below and write a reply to Andrea. In your letter, you have to make suggestions on how to gain trust from her boss and colleagues, and ways to release stress from work. You should also try to encourage Andrea to keep working hard towards achieving her goal. Write about 200 words.

Dear Chris,

Hi, there! Please help ... I am like working in the hell!

As you may know, I got a job with Runway Magazine, the most prestigious fashion magazine in the world, but I am so desperate with my job and the people around me. They are all devils! I have so much work to do and my boss doesn't trust me at all. She thinks I am stupid and incompetent. I am stressful as I really want to become a successful journalist one day. What should I do?

Best wishes,

Andrea

A writing plan for your letter:

 Wish you enjoy English Week 2010! *****